We embark on another year of inspiring makers. Fall is transcendent, a time to look inwards and gain a broader perspective. It's a season that brings about gatherings and earthly comforts, but it also shows us how beautiful it is to allow the changing environment to mark new paths and beginnings.

Departing from what we have done before, we are expanding our craft selections in hopes of reaching more diverse communities. At the same time, we cherish our quilting and sewing roots and will continue to learn, grow, and inspire within that realm.

Exploring and developing Creative Spark, an online learning platform, has connected instructors to the crafting community in their shared journey to elevate their creative arts and craft skills. With over 80 courses to choose from, there is something for everyone of every skill level.

We are so excited for another season full of new titles. Representation matters with Bianca Springer's Represent! Embroidery and clay succulents grow from Kitanoko's Clay Succulent Garden pages.

We bring you more cosplay titles from our imprint, FanPowered Press, from Amanda Haas, Julianna Franchin, Beverly Downen, and the Cowbutt Crunchies duo.

New craft categories debut this season, like pyrography in Woodburning Workshop by Court O'Reilly and watercolor painting in Learn to Watercolor by Sarah Van Der Linden. Discover charming panel quilts with Cyndi McChesney's Fun with Panels and find out what makes Erica Kaprow's Flower Show Quilt a showstopper.

You, my dear maker, are top of mind when our team produces books and products. When we release a book, product, or online course, we focus on the small details, curating a wide range of ideas, crafts, and skills to ignite the imagination.

Browse through our new releases so you, too, can become another maker inspired.

C&T REIN

C&T Publishing has evolved from being well-known as a quilt book publisher to publishing books and products beyond quilting. The rebranding marks a new C&T, both inside the company and out, guided by makers' diverse needs and interests.

We hope to represent a broader range of communities who share our goal to teach, inspire, and share the beauty of everyday life through creative expression.

A word cloud guided the overall look and feel of C&T's logo and color palette, with key terms like inclusive, welcoming, and aspirational.

Fingers gently trace a "C" and a "T" in what has become our new logo. Inspired by the maker, who takes care in creating with their own hands.

Product Development & Marketing Designer Julie Creus carefully articulated how our rebranding can best be shown through movement.

Previous C&T logo, used since 1989

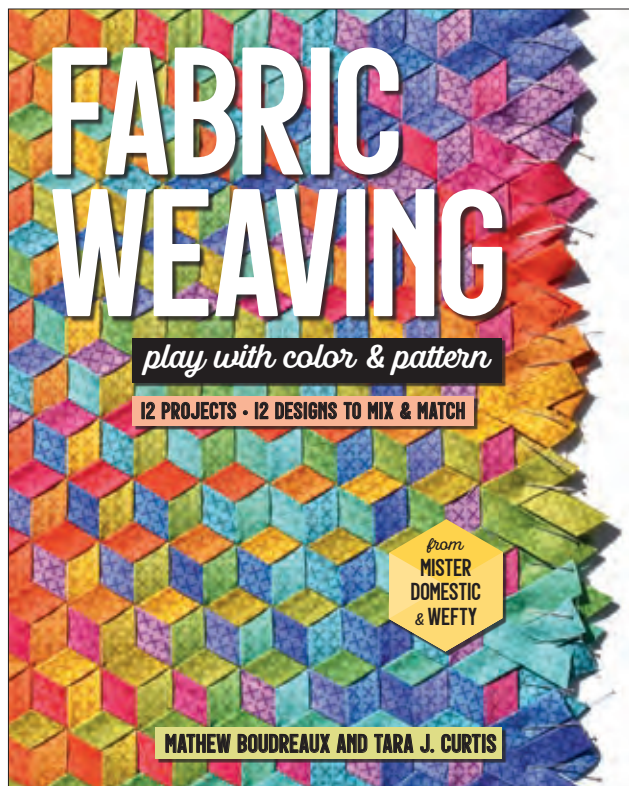

MAGINED

Achieve perfectly dried plants using the suspension technique.

A pentacle is a protective tool for the home. Each of the branches represents an element: spirit, water, fire, earth, and air.

Very trendy in recent years, the crown of flowers is an emblematic accessory for magic celebrations and rituals.

Aesthetic and poetic, the magic vial contains an eternal plant.
