David Bellamy explains the challenges and joys of capturing winter subjects, from how to do quick sketches in freezing temperatures to how to add warmth and vibrancy to snow scenes.

He has a particular liking for winter subjects, since the landscape at this time is not overwhelmed with green. Here he shares his expertise from how to do rapid outdoor sketches to capturing mist, late autumn colours, bare tree trunks and various types of snow, through using rogue colours, making the most of low lighting. There are four sections: late autumn, winter, deep mid-winter and early spring, and four beautiful step-by-step projects.
