

- For the tiny spikes towards the middle of the teasel, I carved ‘flecks’ of lines with the 1mm V-shaped tool (3d).
- The little flowers at the centre of the teasel were simply outlined with a small U-shaped tool (3e).
- The details in the teasel’s spikes were carved in, including the thorns, using a mix of tools (3f).
- Finally, the background was filled with cross-hatched markings using the small V-shaped tool. (3g).
