Key Selling Points

- Another fabulous title from one of the world's best-selling art authors, Jean Haines has sold over 94,000 books to date
- Building on the success of Paint Yourself Calm, the book will cross the boundary between art and 'mind, body, spirit' books that aim to improve the reader's mood and well-being.
- This is not just a book for artists. It is for anyone looking for a way of enhancing their life and mood through painting.

Description

Bestselling, internationally-renowned artist and author Jean Haines takes you on an exciting journey through painting in her new book. Not just for artists, this book is an avenue into art for people who have never painted and may even have been told they 'can't paint' at an early age, but who love the idea of playing with colour as a distraction from the stresses of modern life.

All of Jean's books have promoted the energising and mood-lifting effects of painting, and this aspect of her writing is brought into sharp focus in Paint Yourself Positive. It will encourage the reader to take up painting as a wonderful hobby that can transform your life.

About the Author

Prize-winning and inspirational watercolourist Jean Haines is well-known for her love of her chosen medium and the ability to instil enthusiasm and motivation in all around her. Having lived and travelled in many countries, this popular international artist and teacher has developed her skills under the influence of masters from many countries, including Asia, the Middle East and Europe. The magical free flow of water and colour straight on to a blank working surface creates amazing results, often leaving her sell-out audiences breathless with delight.

Jean runs hugely popular international watercolour workshops for artists from around the globe, and her highly sought-after paintings can similarly be found in homes all over the world. Jean is a member of the SWA, Society for Women Artists, and has won numerous awards for her work, including the Anthony J Lester Award during the SWA Annual Exhibition, and the SAA Professional Artist of the Year, Experimental and Abstract Award. She regularly writes for art magazines and exhibits in a number of galleries.

Description

"Life drawing is not only about learning to draw the body accurately; it also teaches you to translate our complex three-dimensional world... to the confines of a sheet of paper." Eddie Armer

Improve your drawing skills and learn how to observe the human form with this simple practical course.

By applying a few basic rules, the shape of a body can be both accurately and artistically captured in as little as two minutes, using only a small selection of artist's materials.

Feel encouraged as you start your life-drawing journey by accomplishing an effective, straightforward pose, formed across a few straight lines and drawn with a standard pencil. Then, work with ease through each of Eddie's beautifully drawn projects to tackle fundamental methods for sketching, designed to steadily introduce you to invaluable techniques that will bring your work to the next level.

Every project includes fully-illustrated step by steps and helpful advice on the drawing method used. Pore over the accompanying gallery of stunning pieces by Eddie at the end of the chapter, showing examples of the demonstrated technique and providing inspiration for your own poses and style, once you've built your confidence.

From line, tone and shade through to positioning, drawing hands, feet and faces, this is the ultimate guide to learning to draw the body.

Key Selling Points

- New stand-alone edition of Eddie Armer's previously published book Drawing Masterclass: Life Drawing
- Received 4.5 star reviews on Amazon and proven popular amongst art instructors and students
- Eddie Armer is an artist and experienced drawing teacher, and is familiar with what new artists can achieve and what they want (and need) to learn
- 10 fully-illustrated step by steps tackle the key and complex methods
- Eddie uses a mixture of media throughout the book, so readers can try out and discover their chosen artist's tool.

About the Author

Eddie Armer is an artist, musician and designer. His passion for life drawing began in 1970 when his art teacher advised him to attend Saturday morning life drawing workshops at Camberwell Art School. He later attended Croydon College of Art and Watford School of Art, after which he became a graphic designer. Eddie now devotes his time to his love of art and music, and teaches regular life drawing classes. Eddie set up the Tudeley Art Group in 2002 and the Creative Cartel in 2005. He lives in Kent, UK.

Key Selling Points

- Author Sylvie Bégot teaches basketry within schools and to medical students of occupational therapy in her native France
- Features easy-to-source materials such as natural cane
- Projects range from a classic country basket to a contemporary woven bangle
- Basketweaving is a traditional craft that has here been given a contemporary twist.

Description

Create twenty practical and stunning basketry projects for your home and garden.

Author Sylvie Bégot uses coloured cane to bring this enduring, traditional craft right up to date. She uses simple techniques that are clearly explained through step-by-step photographs and instructions. Anyone can create one of these basketry projects – no special skills are required, and the baskets can be made at home.

About the Author

Sylvie Bégot has been creative from a young age. She put her interest in crafts on hold to train as a paramedic, and returned to her interest in basketry during maternity leave for her third child. She then began to share her passion for basketweaving through workshops.

Sylvie's need to source and create specific teaching materials led her to publish her first book on cane basketry in France in 2007. Prior to the publication of Basketweaving for Beginners, Sylvie published another four books on basketry in her native France. She now runs basketry workshops for schoolchildren as well as for trainee occupational therapists, in Lyon, France. She has a particular interest in basketry using natural products such as cane, willow and rattan as well as upcycled materials.

Description

Louise Firchau is an expert paper cutter and owner of the renowned online paper cuts company Paper Panda. Her gorgeous designs are much sought after, and here are twenty of them - all created by Louise especially for the book, and all in her distinctive and exquisite style. Each project consists of a full-size template and a photograph of the finished design, together with tips on cutting, or how to display the finished item and a 1-5 difficulty rating. With notes on basic papercutting techniques at the start of the book, this is a must-have buy for paper cutters looking for new and original ideas, as well as Louise's numerous fans worldwide.

About the Author

After leaving school, Louise Firchau studied art and design, art history, illustration and typography, and enjoyed card making, glass painting and sketching. In 2000 she was inspired to start paper cutting, and in 2010 she started her own online company called Paper Panda, making typographical lyrical paper cuts from recycled paper. Since then Paper Panda has grown enormously and she now sells paper cuts and giftware in a range of distinctive styles. Louise has a huge following and has taught thousands of people to paper cut through online groups using her paper cutting starter kit, which she also sells from her on-line shop. Description

Introducing prewashed kraft-tex in a sophisticated range of new colours! Wait until you get your hands on this rugged paper that looks, feels, and wears like leather, but sews, cuts, and washes just like fabric. kraft-tex Designer is supple and easy to sew with, yet strong enough to use for projects that get tough wear. This cruelty-free leather alternative now comes in hand-dyed, hand-finished denim blue, saffron yellow, moss green, and linen, and will bring an exciting new texture and colour to your craft-sewing projects, mixed-media arts, and bookmaking. The sumptuous surface is prewashed, preshrunk, eco-friendly, colour-fast, tear-resistant, and so much more.

- Play with it! Sew it, stamp it, draw on it, fold it, inkjet print it
- Prewashed treatment gives it a suede-like finish and lovely crinkles
- Pieces are hand-dyed and hand-cut, so colour and size may vary slightly

Description

Curls are marvellously flexible, wearable wraps that work with any weight of yarn, can be knit at any gauge, and look beautiful at any size. Knit them small and wear them as a cowl. Keep going to make a scarf. Do a bit more, and you've got a shawl. They form a wonderfully curved shape that drapes beautifully around your neck and shoulders and can be worn in lots of different ways. Use your favourite yarn, and knit at whatever gauge gives you the fabric you like best. You're in charge, you can't mess it up, and you're going to love the result.

Patchwork Lab: Gemology

Transforming Fabrics into Facets

ANDREA TSANG JACKSON

Publication	April 2019
Price	£24.99
ISBN	9781940655413
Format	Hardback 229 x 216 mm
Extent	144 pages
Illustrations	120 Colour illustrations
Publisher	Lucky Spool Media
Classification	Quilting
BIC CODE/S	WFBQ
SALES REGIONS	Worldwide excluding North America, Australia and New Zealand

Description

Andrea Tsang Jackson guides readers through transforming the beauty, allure, and power of natural stones into glittering complex patchwork quilts. Using her expert tips and tricks and her step-by-step process to master a plan for the colour work required to achieve transparency and light through fabric selection, readers will paper-piece their way to a jewellery box of blocks. Beginning with nine traditional gemstone shapes, such as teardrop, marquis, and emerald cuts, each block progresses in complexity so readers can hone their skills as they work their way through the book. Next, quilters will be inspired to use their blocks in a series of projects – both large and small. Created with intermediate quilters in mind, the book includes:

- A beginner-friendly workshop on achieving effective transparency with fabric
- Andrea Tsang Jackson's speedy chain-piecing technique for paper piecing
- Nine basic 12" gemstone blocks
- Graded patterns to create the perfect finished block size
- Cutting and faceting with fabric workshop
- Gemstone groups with sampler ideas
- Field Guide approach with watercolour illustrations of gemstones

Key Selling Points

- Gemstone shapes are trending everywhere from lighting to clothing to jewellery itself.
- In 2016, Andrea Tsang Jackson won the Etsy Canada Award for New Talent for her Diamond Gemology Pillow.
- Includes a variety of projects, from smaller ones featuring single gemstone blocks to larger quilt samplers.
- Integrates tutorials on easily adjusting the sizes of each block through exclusive graded patterns.
- Perfect for quilters to gift for every occasion: birthdays, weddings, anniversaries, and more.

About the Author

Andrea Tsang Jackson is an artist, designer, and quilter based in Halifax, Canada. Quilting is the medium through which she explores her interests in geometry, material, and place. Her purposeful approach to her work imbues meaning in every aspect of each project that she puts forth. Andrea's background in architecture has allowed her to understand the design process from a variety of approaches. For more information go to www.3rdstoryworkshop.com
